

TFT's Human Resources Associate:
Lesley Bers BA(Hons) FIPD

Specialist skills

Broad based consultancy experience across several industry sectors and sizes of company

Registered Adviser for Investors in People, covering all stages of the advisory process

Extensive knowledge of UK Employment Legislation and current Human Resources Management practice and its application in the workplace

Experience in integration of new business as well as promotion of organic growth

NVQ assessor with sound understanding of the principles of Vocational Training

A 'people' person who uses enabling and influencing skills to achieve objectives in a fair and objective way

Highly developed planning skills and ability to simplify information

Excellent communication skills to all levels and to large and small groups